The famous Matterhorn presides over this winter wonderland. The area begins at 2000 meters above sea level and rises to 3400 m on the Plateau Rosa (which is serviced by a brand new cable car), all but guaranteeing plenty of snow.

Cervinia itself is a charming town and the accommodations that we have booked at the 4* Chalet Valdostain look wonderful. Chalet Valdostain provides a shuttle bus all day and has an indoor pool, sauna and turkish bath.

While there is plenty of skiing in Cervinia, one can't resist taking a day or two to ski up and over and have lunch in Zermatt, skiing the afternoon in Switzerland and then coming back to a wonderful meal at the Chalet Valdostain at the end of the day.

Milan is a wonderful city with lots to see: the Duomo and the Galleria are not to be missed. In addition Leonardo da Vinci's painting "The Last Supper" is a must see. Restaurants, museums, parks....ah, Italy.

*Airlines are changing their baggage policies on a daily basis; we will keep you informed.
